

The 16-24 Creative Collective

What is it?

Connect, Collaborate, Create @ The Collection

The Creative Collective offers a unique opportunity for young people to get directly involved with the Collection. Members of the Collective will:

- Participate in exclusive, artist-led workshops
- Visits to stimulating Studios/ Galleries
- Benefit from industry insight and 'behind the scenes' access
- Collaboratively produce creative projects, with opportunities to exhibit

The direction of the Collective will be decided by it's members.

The Collection is yours—own it.

Who can join?

Are you aged between 16 to 24 years with a passion for arts and culture? Are you looking to collaborate with creative individuals and develop your skills? You don't need to be in education or employment to apply.

How to apply?

Applications are now open until DATE. Send completed applications to The Collection email: thecollection@lincolnshire.gov.uk

Key dates/ further details

June: Open Evening

Find out more about the Collective and meet the team behind the project.

30th and 31st August: 2 day launch workshop

This exciting working will include Shaping the Collective: Developing a Manifesto and an Exclusive artist workshop with Evan Roth, based around his exhibition 'Evan Roth's Red Lines with Landscapes at The Usher Gallery'.

Application Form

Name:

Contact telephone number:

Email address:

Date of Birth:

Current status: Employed/ Unemployed/ Freelance/ Student (school)/
Student (university)/ Student (College)/ Other.....

Use this space to tell us about yourself and why you would like to be a part of The Collective? Up to 500 words

What would you like to gain from being part of The Collective? Up to 500 words

Add any of your social media spaces you want us to know about? This can include links to your blogs, Instagram pages and anywhere that you talk about your work or what you do!